 - b. determine that there is a quorum;
 - c. present agenda and call for new agenda items;
 - d. approve the agenda;
 - e. approve the minutes from the last General Meeting;
 - f. deal with unfinished business from the last General Meeting;
 - g. if the meeting is an Annual General Meeting,
 - i. receive the Treasurer's report on the financial statements of the Association for the previous financial year
 - ii. receive any other reports of Directors' activities and decisions since the previous Annual General Meeting,
 - iii. decide on the next year's membership fee, and
 - iv. elect members to the Board of Directors
 - h. deal with new business including any member proposals and other matters about which notice has been given to the members in the notice of meeting;
 - i. terminate the meeting.
 4. A matter to be decided at a General Meeting must be decided by ordinary resolution unless the matter requires a Special Resolution.
 5. Special Meetings must be called on the written request of 10% of the members.
 6. At a Special Meeting, only that business which has been explicitly stated in the notice may be dealt with.
 7. A notice of a General or Special Meeting must state the nature of any business, other than ordinary business, to be transacted at the meeting in sufficient detail to permit a member receiving the notice to form a reasoned judgment concerning that business.
 8. A quorum at General and Special Meetings of the Association shall be the lesser of 10 members or 10 percent of the membership with a minimum number of three members.
 9. The Annual General Meeting of the Association shall be scheduled by the Board of Directors once in every calendar year.
 10. General Meetings of the Association may be scheduled by the Board of Directors at any time deemed appropriate.
 11. The Association shall give to its members not less than seven days and not more than 60 days written notice of General or Special Meetings but those members may waive or reduce the period of notice for a particular meeting by unanimous consent in writing.
 12. Notice of a General or Special Meeting shall specify the place, date and hour of the meeting and, in the case of special business, the nature of that business.
 13. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of a notice by, any of the members entitled to receive notice does not invalidate proceedings of that meeting.
 14. The President, Vice-President or in the absence of both, one of the directors present, must preside as chair of a General or Special Meeting.
 15. If at a General or Special Meeting there is no President, Vice-President or other director present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting the Association members present must choose one of their number to be the chair.
 16. Business other than ensuring procedure for the chair and the adjournment or termination of the meeting must not be conducted at a General or Special Meeting at a time when a quorum is not present.
 17. If within 30 minutes from the time appointed for a General or Special Meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting must be terminated and rescheduled. If at the rescheduled meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the Association members present constitute a quorum provided that at least three members are present.

18. If at any time during the meeting there ceases to be a quorum present, business then in progress must be suspended until there is a quorum present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated.

9. Voting

1. No member shall vote by absentee or proxy votes.
2. All ordinary resolutions at a General or Special Meeting shall be passed by a simple-majority of the votes cast (50% + 1).
3. All Special Resolutions at a General or Special Meeting shall be passed by a 2/3 majority of votes cast.
4. Voting shall be by show of hands or by secret ballot as directed by the Chair or when requested by two members. In the case of a secret ballot, the President will call for 2 scrutineers to collect and count the ballots.
5. The Chair of a General or Special Meeting must announce the outcome of each vote and that outcome must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
